

Decolonizing Sex, Gender, & The Body

Decolonizing Traditions: Native Hawaiian Women and the Question of Feminism

Sep. 13 from 12:00-1:00pm in CILSE Room 106B, 610 Commonwealth Ave.

J. Kēhaulani Kauanui • Wesleyan University

Co-sponsored by the BU American and New England Studies Program

On the Violence of 'LGBT': Decolonizing Trans Studies

Oct. 18 from 12:00-1:00pm in CILSE Room 106B, 610 Commonwealth Ave.

Elijah Edelman • Rhode Island College

Co-sponsored by the BU American and New England Studies Program

Placing Bodies in Relation: Affective Geographies of Empire and New Productions of Sex and Race Difference

Nov. 1 from 12:00-1:00pm in CILSE Room 106C, 610 Commonwealth Ave.

Vrushali Patil • Florida International University

Co-sponsored by the BU Department of Sociology

Transgender Cyborgs and Climate Change in Postcolonial Taiwan: A New Translation of Ta-wei Chi's 'Membrane'

March 27 from 12:00-1:00pm in CILSE Room 106C, 610 Commonwealth Ave.

Ari Heinrich • University of California San Diego

Co-sponsored by the BU Department of World Languages and Literatures

Gender/Sex is in the Body: How Did It Get There?

April 10 from 12:00-1:00pm in CILSE Room 106C, 610 Commonwealth Ave.

Anne Fausto-Sterling • Brown University

Co-sponsored by the BU Department of Biology